(Special to the Argus.)
St. Louis, Mo., July 25.—One of the most harmonious and enthusiastic annual sessions ever held in the state was in session in this city. The day began to arrive Sunday and each incoming train brought additional delegates and relatives until the number of strangers in the city made it look as though it was a national holiday. The Grand Court of Honor was also in session and more than four hundred knights and ladies of the state were attending the city of St. Louis.

The democratic personnel of the Grand Lodge and Grand Court make an almost perfect setting for a democratic session. In fact, no real and without any display, lawyers, physicians, dentists, teachers, ministers, editors and business men harmoniously fraternize with farmers, laborers and laymen.

Men and women of national prominence have brought to St. Louis the air of a Boston and the fashion of a New York.

The Grand Lodge convened promptly at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, with Grand Chancellor A. W. Willoid presiding. The roll of Grand Lodge members showed all to be present. The session which is being held in the city of St. Louis is one of the most important of the year. The Grand Court is in session in the city of St. Louis.

I AM WORKING FOR UNCLE SAM
Every business man in this broad land is working for Uncle Sam. There are no dangers—no personal misadventure—no matter what your activity is, you are devoting your time, energies and a large share of your profits to the winning of the great war. Now a word as to place.
I have been a member of the United States Army since 1917. I have been in the line of the piano business line. I have been very successful, having sold 182 pianos in the 2 1/2 years I have been in the business. I have had many satisfied customers. During the first ten days of June I sold $1,000 worth of goods.
